会長 大仁 邦彌

There is a deep bond between Brazil and Japan: the two countries share more than 100 years of history beginning with Japanese immigration to Brazil, and Japanese football was developed with help of Brazilian coaches and players.

For the many Japanese descendants who live in Brazil, and to show our gratitude to the Brazilian coaches and players who made great efforts for the development of Japanese football in the past, we would like to fight to demonstrate “true Japanese football” and make our mark in the land of the Kingdom of Football, Brazil.

Under the name of “SAMURAI BLUE,” the Japan National Team will fight fairly with our heads held high, and our total focus on the road ahead of us. Please follow our journey.

Laços estreitos unem o Japão e o Brasil, não apenas em função dos mais de cem anos de história da imigração japonesa no Brasil, mas também pelo crescimento do futebol japonês, graças à capacidade de técnicos e jogadores brasileiros.

Como forma de retribuição a todos os técnicos e jogadores brasileiros pelo seu empenho durante sucessivas gerações para desenvolver o futebol japonês, e também em homenagem ao grande número de descendentes japoneses que vivem no país, desejamos deixar no país do futebol nossos rastros, e que todos possam dizer: “Esse é o futebol japonês”.

JFA Logo

The three-legged crow holding a ball represents the god of day, namely, the sun, cited from a classical book of old China. It is believed that the three-legged crow provided Emperor Jimmu and his army with directions on his expedition to the East. The yellow and blue colors of the flag represent fair play and youth, respectively, thereby suggesting Japan Football Association's spirit of fairness backed by the vigorous power of youth.

Comments / Comentários

"The quality and accuracy of Japanese football abilities has improved even more over these past four years. I would like to show proof of the progress of the Japan National Team. In order to demonstrate the true spirit of Japanese football and to play a game in our style, we must take initiative in the game, instead of playing reactively. All members of the Japan National Team possess the ability to realize such play, a high-level of understanding of strategies and a degree of utility, as well as value teamwork. Demonstrating better performances will naturally result in better results. I am confident that we have a great team with strong players who can demonstrate a tremendous performance, provided that physical conditions are well maintained."

"A qualidade e a precisão na atuação em campo se aprimoraram nos últimos quatro anos. Quero mostrar que a seleção japonesa cresceu taticamente. Para jogarmos futebol do nosso jeito e mostrarmos uma peculiaridade bem japonesa, precisamos conquistar o poder de liderança e não um futebol de reação. Para isso, reunimos jogadores talentosos, com alto grau de compreensão tática, capacidade de atuar em diferentes posições e espírito de equipe. Mostrando um bom desempenho, obteremos naturalmente bons resultados. Acredito que, com um bom condicionamento físico, temos hoje a melhor equipe capaz de exibir o melhor jogo."
